VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land, a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by, E. E. Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

Meeting in Wake.

We are authorized to state that a meeting of the citizens of Wake County will be held at the Court House, in this city, on Tuesday next, at 12 o'clock, M., for the purpose of making arrangements to secure representation from this Congressional District in the approaching National Convention at Philadelphia.

Convention of Southern Radicals.

An address, as pre-announced, has been issued to the "loyal Unionists" (Heaven save the mark!) of the South, by a self-constituted committee of political nonentities and adventurers at Washington. The "loyal Unionists" are requested to meet in Convention at Philadelphia in September next; and it is in Independence Hall that is further proposed to conduct their fanatical orgies. The address says: "The time has come when the reconstruction of the Southern State governments must be had on the principle of protection to every citizen on the basis of perfect equality before the law; and further, that no State government should be recognized as legitimate, under the Constitution, that does not incorporate this principle in its organic law; that if Southern men control the Legislatures there will be no safety for the loyal men of the South." The reliance of the signers, they declare, is in Congress.

Among the signers of the address are Ex-P. G. Hamilton, of Texas, Judge (so-called) Underwood and Burnham Wardwell, of Virginia, and "Byron Lafflin" and D. R. Goodloe, of North Carolina. Our readers already know Hamilton, as the apostate son of a noble State, who has sought to degrade it at the footstool of Radical power, and who has just been repudiated and scorned by his neighbors as a perfidious betrayer of their interests and their honor. Underwood is known as a paltry pettifogger, who has reached the bench by the accidents of revolution, and who is a disgrace to the judicial ermine,—possessing all the truculence and corruption of Jeffreys, with barely capacity sufficient to fill out a blank deed or grant a judgment on a justice's warrant. Wardwell, the other representative of Virginia "loyalty," is known in Richmond as a man of bad character, whose bosom friends and intimate companions are gentlemen of African 'scent, and who, on the 4th. of July, just past, gave a negro entertainment under his own roof, and signalized the occasion by an attempt at a speech, which was fiendish enough to have delectated Thaddeus in his most savage intervals. As to the North Carolina signers, we have never heard of "Byron Lafflin." He is probably a myth—or a cypher. We doubt whether there is a man, woman or child in the State who ever heard of him. We are disposed to offer a liberal reward for information as to his paternity, antecedents and locality. We feel a profound admiration for a man, whom no one knows or ever heard of, and who yet has the lofty impudence, the sublime assurance, to put himself forward as a representative man.

We are sorry to see Mr. Goodloe in such bad company, because, personally, Mr. Goodloe is a worthy man. But how dare Mr. Goodloe set himself up as an exponent of even Radical sentiment in North Carolina,—a State from which he expatriated himself fifteen years ago and in which he has not resided since? During that time, up to the period of the war, he was identified with the anti-slavery agitators of New England, and is therein more responsible for the "rebellion," about which he discourses so flippantly in this address, than any man that we know in the State. But perhaps the worst feature in Mr. Goodloe's connection with this revolutionary movement consists in the fact, that he is a recent Executive appointee to the office of Marshal of North Carolina, and that one of his first acts has been to raise his arm against the President and array himself in the ranks of his bitter and vindictive enemies. If Mr. Goodloe contemplates resuming his former residence in this State, he may assure himself, in his self-assumed capacity as another "representative man," of a profound and distinguished consideration at the hands of our people.

Most of the signers of this address are doubtless put forward merely as cat's-paws, while the veritable wire-pullers, ashamed or too modest to make themselves known, yet awhile, are behind the scenes. The real instigators will probably never be found out, for the reason that the whole thing will prove a miserable abortion,—a sort of Hope Baine affair, if we may be allowed the illustrative use of the recent "moving" demonstration in an adjoining county.

It is only necessary to add, we believe that the Convention, from anything that appears to the contrary, is called irrespectively of color, and that it is to "convene and organize" in September, which is a very hot month.

We clip, by the way, the following item from the Washington correspondence of the New York Herald. So far, so good:

"Ex-Gov. Holden, nominated as Consul to San Salvador, will not participate in the call for a Convention of the Loyal Unionists issued today. He is still in the city awaiting confirmation."

The Union of the Union Men.

A late Charlotte Times, which, however, has been mislaid, feeling the necessity of union among those who heartily support President Johnson in this State, very properly suggests that there is no necessity for division among Constitutional Union men, and intimates that any indications of division among the friends of Gov. Worth can and will be easily cured or adjusted.

We are prepared to make any reasonable concession of opinion or preference for men, in order to secure the greater object of union among all the supporters of a Constitutional Union. Like other men, we have our preferences, and we think much is due to the peculiar claims that some have over others for public office; but our devotion to no one man, or set of men, is so great, that we cannot, in a moment, lay aside our preferences for men, to effect a common good for the State or country.

The early reconciliation of this State, and all the Southern States, under the Constitution as it now is, we regard as the most important political consideration which can be presented to our people at the present time. We believe it can only be effected by the earnest combination of the Constitutional Union men.

Hence, we have suggested that, in the event of the adoption of the Constitution, as the easiest method of settling the choice of the friends of Gov. Worth for the candidate for Lieutenant Governor, that the gentlemen named for that office meet in this city, at an early day after the election, to make the selection either from their own number, or otherwise.

Its Old Tricks.

The Radical organ never meets an issue squarely. It charges, charges, but seldom, if ever, attempts to meet a charge. It still harps upon the Atlantic Railroad matters.

It still complains that Gov. Worth appointed Hon. C. C. Clark a Director, and asserts that he does not own the required amount of stock.—Now Gov. Worth knew that he owned stock, but how much he owned he did not certainly know then, nor does he know now; but presumed that the number of Stockholders who desired the appointment, knew whether he was legally qualified or not. But what shameless hypocrisy is there in this pretended regard for the law, by the organ, or by the disappointed!

Gov. Holden appointed no less than twelve Directors, last year, who did not own the requisite stock and most did not own a cent of stock. Did the Standard howl over that? Did the disappointed, whimpering ex-Directors, who now complain, raise any objection to it? Not a whimper came from them then. But now they are ready to go into fits at the appointment of one only, who, it is alleged, does not own the requisite amount.

The Radical organ asserts that the appointments for the Atlantic Road were made several days before the meeting. This is positively untrue. They were not completed until Wednesday morning, and just in time for the train.

The National Union Convention.

There is one paramount reason which decides the propriety and vital importance of having the States of the South represented in the approaching National Union Convention at Philadelphia. It is known that the President heartily endorses the movement, and that he looks to its action to strengthen his hands in the conflict which he is waging against the Radical disunionists of Congress. If the President triumphs in this conflict, the rights and restoration of the South will be speedily vindicated and effected. If the Radicals prevail, it passes the power of language to predict the bitter future of humiliation and oppression that is in store for us. In view of such an alternative, how can we halt or hesitate for a moment?

The New York World, apropos to this subject, remarks:

"The South need have no hesitation in sending delegates, nor any fear of the Congressional test oath. They will meet friendly delegations from the North, strong enough in numbers and influence to secure a respectful hearing for whatever the South may have to say. If a few Republicans of the Raymond pattern choose to bolt from the Convention their presence will be little missed. Either with them or without them the Convention will be held; and the Southern delegates may be assured of the fair play in it which is denied them by the Rump Congress. Union means the Union of the North with the South. That Southern delegates come to meet the North, with a view to joint political action, is good enough proof of their Unionism; as, on the other hand, the willingness of the Northern delegates to meet the South, with a view to act together in politics, proves them to be good Unionists. Union means Union with the South; and the Times "might as well attempt to stop Niagara with bulrushes" as to prevent the South coming to the Convention, and their friends in the North appearing there in great force to welcome them."

"But in what respect have we traduced the character of Gov. Holden? We made but a single charge against him. We charged that he was exceedingly anxious for the State Convention to signify its willingness to accept the Howard Amendment, even in advance of its passage by both Houses of Congress. We made the charge upon the authority of one of the most respectable members of the Convention, who was approached by Gov. Holden himself on the subject, and whom he wanted to bring the subject before the Convention, and which he indignantly refused to do. This gentleman supported Gov. Holden against Gov. Worth last fall, and there is no doubt of his ability to "bear true, honest and manly evidence against Governor Holden," if the Editor of the Old North State cannot. Does the Standard want to know who this gentleman is? If so, it can have his name as he has authorized us to give it."—Old North State.

Our cotemporary might have added that Gov. Holden publicly advised the Convention, through the columns of the Standard, to adopt the Howard amendment in advance of its passage by Congress. No need to call upon the gentleman refered to, or any other private witnesses. The fact is on record,—and a shameful record it is!

DR. HENRY JOYNER, of Halifax, has published a letter declining to be a candidate for re-election to the next House of Commons. Dr. H. was a highly intelligent and useful member, and will be missed in the legislative councils.

THE SPEECH of Gen. Frank P. Blair before the Conservative Convention of Missouri, which recently met in St. Louis, was one of the most commendable, generous and patriotic emanations of the day. Such sentiments as he expresses will do more than anything else to obliterate the asperities of the late war. We give below an extract from his address; premising that, while the people of the South do not admit that their conduct was criminal, they readily pardon the expression, when it is accompanied by so much that is really noble and magnanimous:

"Fellow citizens, it is not my intention to detain you any great length of time. I had thought, because I, myself, feel a much deeper interest in those questions which concern us here at home, and which are of such vital importance, to direct my attention to them in the opening remarks which I have made here, but there are also other great questions involved in the controversy now pending between the President of the United States and the Radical majority in Congress. This Radical majority at the beginning of this session of Congress made its appearance upon the floors of the two houses of Congress demanding negro suffrage and the disfranchisment of the white men of the eleven States recently in rebellion. It was the intention and the object of that party to give the right of suffrage in those States to the negroes, and take it away from our own race. That gallant, heroic race of whom, notwithstanding the fault which they have committed,—aye, notwithstanding the crime they have committed,—I have always regarded it as a crime to take up arms against the good of our common country,—yet they have shown themselves to be sincere and devoted in their cause. They have evinced courage and endurance: by their gallantry and by their long suffering in this cause, so mistaken, and so erroneous, and so criminal, they have shown themselves to be the equals of any equal number of men upon God Almighty's globe. (Applause.) Those who have contended against them are those who are the readiest to admit that they have shown themselves to be the equals of any other people in the world. (Applause.) Not only have they shown themselves ready to admit that these men are their equals, but they have shown themselves the readiest to overlook the past, and to forget what there is need of forgetting, and to receive these men back into the Government, with all the rights and dignity of their respective States unimpaired, simply requiring from them, upon the pledge that they will give, that they will renew their allegiance to the Government of the United States. (Applause.) Cannot we trust that pledge if these men will give it to us?—Have we not reason to believe that they are men of sincerity? Can we not confide in these brave men? I say that we can. (Applause.) I say that this is the only way in which they can be brought back into the Government and bound to it by links of gratitude, stronger than any links of steel that can be wrought. (Applause.)

And now I will ask, what foreign nation is there on the earth that would not be proud and happy to receive these people and give them all the rights of citizenship enjoyed by any of their citizens? (Applause.) Would not France be eager to do it? Would not Great Britain be too proud to extend her dominion over that proud country, sharing her Government with those gallant, noble men who have vindicated their right to manhood in this contest unparalleled in the history of war. Would not any foreign nation on the face of the earth be willing to receive this people? Not receive them on degrading terms, but receive them in open arms upon an equality with her other citizens."

Mr. Boyden.

The last Raleigh Sentinel, speaking of the late Rail Road Presidents, says, that "so far as it has learned, Mr. Bridgers alone has been entirely acceptable to the Stockholders." In this connection we deem it due to Mr. Boyden to say that he did not desire the Presidency of the North Carolina Road, and that he only agreed to accept of it at last on condition that he should not be required to devote any more of his time to it than he could spare from his profession.

With the new appointments just made by Gov. Worth we are satisfied, and we doubt not that some efficient man will be elected to succeed Mr. Boyden in the Presidency of the Road, as we know that he will decline a re-election. —Old North State.

We publish the foregoing with pleasure. At the time of making the remark, alluded to by our cotemporary, we expressly disclaimed any invidious reference, political or personal, to any one of the Railroad Presidents. All that we have ever heard against Mr. Boyden's administration was, that he did not devote as much of his time as was desirable to the affairs of the road,—which, it seems, under his stipulation, he was not expected to do.

Why does the Sentinel leave the hallowed word "Union" out of its call for a meeting in Wake to send delegates to a Philadelphia Convention. It styles it a National Convention. It was styled by the committee a National Union Convention. Cannot the Sentinel go the 'Union?'

Thus discourseth the Radical organ in this City. Will it inform us what is meant by the word National, if it does not embrace the idea of Union? Herein lies the difference between ourselves and that paper: We go for a National Union; it goes for a so-called Union, which is really to exclude from the benefits and privileges of the government a large part of the National brotherhood. We go for the Union of all the people and all the States; it advocates a Union of Radicals only, under an emasculated Constitution.

ONE OF THE DESPATCHES from Nashville, alluding to the absence of a quorum in the lower branch of the Tennessee Legislature, announces that the Sergeant-at-arms was in search of the absent members, with orders to bring them in, "dead or alive." There is no doubt that any number of "dead heads" might be procured, but how dead men can form a quorum or vote upon the Constitutional amendment, we are at a loss to see.

The Missouri State Times of July 6 comes to us filled with notices of the United States Marshal for the Western District of Missouri to parties whose real estate he has seized for confiscation on account of their participation in the "rebellion."

THE EPISCOPAL METHODISTS IN MARYLAND.—It is believed that the movement will shortly absorb nearly all the Methodists belonging to the old church, in these parts, who are opposed to radicalism and in favor of maintaining in their purity the principles of old-fashioned Maryland Methodism [that is, the southern church].—Eastern Star.

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The biographer and eulogist, and special friend of our beloved Ex-P. G. has been sadly puzzled by the following queries from an unknown friend. He is no metaphysician. He boasteth not that he possesseth the faculty claimed by some ancient philosopher, of being able to answer all questions of what nature or sort soever, "de omni scibili, et quibusdam aliis." He knoweth not who struck Billy Patterson. Neither doth he know that Billy Patterson was stricken at all, and he wavereth in his opinion whether that famous gentleman (so-called) be not altogether a myth, the creation merely of some wild and ferocious imagination, who dressed that fantasy up in the garb of humanity, for the special purpose of giving it a drubbing. Bug-a-boos have been conjured up long before our day, by valiant spirits who panted with an inextinguishable desire to demolish somebody. And so they built up these fictions on purpose to knock them down again, at which valorous deeds their own souls did greatly rejoice.

The biographer, and so forth, throws himself and his friend's letter before the public, in the words and figures following, to-wit:

"BILL PATTERSON MONOLOGUE.

Am I Bill Patterson? or am I not Bill Patterson? On this question hangs the fate of Republics—until it is settled the Union cannot be restored. But who can cut this knot if I cannot? can my enemies? can my friends? can the drowsy Sentinel at his post where Providence planted him? Is there a Standard whose equal balance can duly weigh it? My enemies swear I am Bill Patterson; my friends swear I am not. If I am Bill Patterson, Bill Patterson would be conscious of it. Locke says personal identity depends on consciousness, and if Bill Patterson is not conscious of being Bill Patterson, he is not Bill Patterson. If Bill Patterson is not Bill Patterson, somebody else is Bill Patterson, which is impossible unless I am Bill Patterson. If I ever was Bill Patterson I am not Bill Patterson, and that ought to settle the question. If it is longer agitated it will shake the continent. Henceforth I drop it. I fall back on, "God knows I am honest." That's more than nine-tenths of the masses can say—they were honest once, when I helped them into power.—The tide of corruption has swept them away into the gulf of treason! The masses are honest when they take counsel of an honest man. But who is honest? Thank God I am. "Y. Y." is honest. I heard him swear it before five hundred witnesses. It must be so or all men are liars. There is that viper, always gnawing my old files. Thank God I am not like him—a gluttonous man, a wine bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. I am not only honest but generous—I pardoned four hundred and thirty-one rebels; at least I gave them absolution which, to the intent and purpose, was just as good.—They voted, some voted wrong; poor human nature! They struck the hand that brought mercy. Now the question comes up once more: Who struck Bill Patterson? On this question hangs the peace of Europe and San Salvador.

(Exeunt Bill Patterson and I.")

It would seem to an unsophisticated mind that if Bill Patterson had been whipped as badly as he intimates, he would himself know best about his personal identity; that, like the snows and the sleets, "would feeling convince one what he is." If he be really a man, and no myth, and have left a "file" containing his own biography, that might serve as a clue to others on the very interesting question of his whereabouts in body, or elsewhere, the public might gnaw away on that, to their great edification, though Billy Patterson himself might scoff at them for their vain efforts to hurt him or his "file."

The biographer, &c., has neither time nor taste for such idle enquiries just now. He can delight in nothing but to sit down quietly and love and honor the Ex-P. G. He doeth this with all his might. He reverenceth the powers that be. He delighteth to honor the powers that have been. He "poureth out his whole soul" before Ex-P. G. Hamilton. He prostrateth himself bodily before that eminent Justiciary 'ycleped Underwood. He collapseth in presence of the gentle Brownlow. He wipeth his nose, and eke his eyes, while he museth on Thaddeus the mild, from the land of Penn; and goeth into conniption fits at the wrongs of that much abused man of Massachusetts, Charles, the avenger. These be all of a kidney,—Arcades omnes—Arcadian brothers,—clean patriots, without guile, without fear and without reproah.

What time hath one so wrapt in the contemplations of greatness, to find out who struck Billy Patterson? He knoweth not, and though he knew ever so well, he would scorn to interrupt these delicious musings by uttering the striker's abominable name. There be times when profane thoughts are very unseemly, and more to be eschewed than the millinery perfumes so anathematized by the impatient, impetuous and irate Hotspur. Oh! let nothing now jar upon the harmonious feeling of intermingled joy and grief—the very "joy of grief" which pervades all classes in our dear old State, at the prospect of seeing no more for a long time, if ever again, the face of him who has so long and so unselfishly, and with such exquisite tenderness, given us his whole great heart. Verily, we must all fall on his neck and bathe him with our tears, and smother him with our balmiest osculations. We have one consolation only, the same that cheers the breaking heart when good people go hence,—that "what is our loss is their gain."—Some bid him God speed for his own individual good. Many more, with high unselfish patriotism, speed him on for the good of his country. This famous mission hath a two-fold desirableness. It putteth much money in his somewhat collapsed Ex-Gubernatorial purse, and it leaveth his country "alone in its glory."

Our departing friend hath heretofore often comforted us, in his own Court Journal, by assurances, that he was not going away, that he would not go away,—that he could not leave a people whom he loved so well, that his enemies should not drive him away, that he would stay and "defy them," whether or no. Much should be pardoned to just indignation, even though somewhat mingled with passion. Our friend hath been greatly bedeviled. Peradventure he was not aware of what he said. Like Hotspur, again, he may have spoken "neglectingly he knew not what." But really he meant nothing so very horrible. He never said, nor thought, that he could not be drawn away by metallic influences. No, our eminent friend was "meant for mankind." Let no "pent up Utica" step in with her contemptible claim. San Salvador in all its amplitude demands him, being well advised of his world-renowned exploits in Provisional-governing unruly and disloyal spirits.—Already there is considerable commotion on Balsam coast. The most intelligent and furious tribe of man-monkeys are chatting very suspiciously in the cocoa-nut trees, evidently on the eve of an emeute. There are four, if not five, Directors of the Isthmian Railroad so infected with disloyalty that their peaceable neighbors cannot sleep o'nights, at their own quiet homes, but wander abroad all night in search of some "good brandy," so well appreciated by the Minister, to cheer their "sperrits" and give them Dutch courage. The detective skill and experience of our vigilant Ex-P. G. is greatly needed. The San Salvadoreans are clamorous for our beloved, and we must let him go. We must make the sacrifice. "Tis our country calls," and our duty is to submit and obey. There will undoubtedly be very piteous sighing and sobbing.

"Wi' mony a vow and locked embrace,
Our parting is fu' tender," &c.

There will be much salt water on pocket handkerchiefs that day. There will be wet linen generally. But we must endeavor to suppress our sad pheelinks. Let us all be patriotic and sing hallelujahs, though our poor hearts burst in the singing. It will ease us and do us good. M.

P. S. The writer regrets that he can spare no ammunition for smaller game now. When he goes a-catting he goes a-catting. He is hunting the jungles, at present, after a Big Lion.—Should he have leisure hereafter to engage in childish sports, he may level a wooden pop-gun at the crazy tom-tits that are "bobbing around." DR. LACY'S SCHOOL

COMMENCES TO-DAY, Thursday 12th July, 1866. In deference to the wishes and suggestions of the friends and patrons of the school, the terms which have heretofore been twenty dollars for English, and twenty-five for Classical scholars, on a specie basis, have been changed to the uniform price of thirty dollars in currency for all pupils.
This obviates the variations consequent upon the price of gold, and places the tuition lower than it was before.

THE SENTINEL.

Saturday Evening, July 14, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Hon. Kenneth Rayner offers for sale his family residence, and other valuable property in and near the city. It is very rarely that such really splendid property is put into the market. We know of none in the city or vicinity so desirable in every point of view.

Wm. Fleming offers a valuable Florida farm for sale. It combines great attractions. See advertisement.

Pulliam, Jones & Co., will rent, for the balance of the year, one half of a house and lot, with fine garden attached.

Pulliam, Jones & Co., will rent, for the remainder of the year, the House and lot now occupied by J. W. B. Watson, Esq.

Jesse Brown, with Hart & Lewis, advertises "Worcester Dry Hop yeast."

See Card of W. W. West, the enterprising vender of Newspapers, Books and Music, Fayetteville Street.

ATTENTION is directed to the additional clause in the advertisement of the Public Treasurer, explaining the character of the bonds of the State, for the benefit of the Western N. C. R. R. Co., that are offered for sale.

REV. DR. CRAVEN, of Trinity College, will preach on to-morrow morning and night in the Methodist Church.

RALEIGH AND GASTON R. R.—At a meeting of the Directors of this Road, held this morning, (all the Board present except R. W. Lassiter, Esq.) Gen. W. G. Lewis was elected Superintendent, Richard Ashe, Esq., Road master, and Albert Johnson, Master-Machinist.

WE ARE gratified to learn that orders have already been issued by the President of the R. & G. R. R., permitting a suspension of business in the Company Shops in this city, on Thursday next, in order to allow the employees to attend the memorial oration of Gov. Graham on the life, character and services of Mr. Badger.—We trust that this example will be universally followed.

THE MAILS.—On the 25th. of June, two gentlemen of Nahunta, Wayne Co., subscribed for the Daily Sentinel. Their papers have, since that date, been regularly mailed to their address. They write us that not a number has been received. There is inexcusable remissness somewhere on the route, and we hope to be able to discover where it exists.

DEATH OF A MINISTER.—Rev. Jno. W. Wonycott, pastor of the M. E. Church, Gatesville, N. C., died suddenly in that town on Sunday night last, from a congestive chill. He was a native of Portsmouth.

NEW CHURCH IN CHARLOTTE.—The Charlotte Times gives a detailed discription of a splendid new Methodist Church just completed in that city. From the account given, we judge that it is one of the finest religious edifices in the South. It will be appropriately dedicated on the 22nd. inst. The Rev. Wm. C. Power, through whose indefatigable exertions the building has been brought to completion, is the pastor.

DELINQUENT POSTMASTERS.—We learn, from the Newbern Times, that U. S. Deputy Marshal, R. C. Kehoe, has been on a tour through some of the Eastern counties, serving warrants of arrest on delinquent postmasters, or their bondsmen, who were indebted to the Federal Government at the breaking out of the war, and have not yet balanced accounts. David Lawrence, former P. M. at Washington, was held to bail in the sum of $1,200; Aquila Davis in $4,000; Jno. S. Paul in $4,000, and Jno. R. Nelson in $1,200,—all to appear at the Fall term of the Circuit Court to be held at Raleigh, in November.

THE SALEM PRESS has been considerably enlarged. We are glad to see this sign of prosperity in our cotemporary.

U. S. COMMISSIONER.—Jno. P. Vest, Esq., has been appointed Commissioner of the United States to take acknowledgments of bail, affidavits, &c., and to do all other acts and things which Commissioners may do by virtue of the laws of the United States.—Salem Press.

ASHVILLE FEMALE COLLEGE.—We are glad to learn that this school is again in operation and its prospects are flattering.

REV. MR. DE SCHWEINITZ, the late accomplished Principal of the Salem Academy, passed through this city, this week, with his family, on his way to his new field of labor in Nazareth, Pa.

BUNCOMBE.—A meeting of the citizens of Buncombe was held to-day to appoint delegates to the District Convention to be held at Asheville, to appoint District delegates to the great National Union Convention at Philadelphia. Well done for Buncombe. Though cut off from mail communication, she is among the first to move in this matter. Are the other counties moving? We hope to hear of a general movement. Remember the District Convention of this District meets in this city on the 25th. inst.

Charles Vogler, son of E. A. Vogler, Esq., whilst playing with some boys who were carelessly sporting with fire works, on the evening of the fourth, was struck in the face and badly burnt by a fragment of "Roman candle." He very narrowly escaped losing his eye sight.—Salem Press.

Judge Trigg and Thomas A. R. Nelson are spoken of as candidates for the next Governorship of Tennessee.

Gov. Patton, of Alabama, is in Illinois, soliciting contributions of corn for the suffering people of that State.

The German "Diet"—Sauer Kraut.

The President and his Cabinet at Loggerheads.

A special dispatch from Washington to the New York World states that a serious difference has occurred between President Johnson and Secretary Stanton, in regard to the interpretation to be put upon the Peace Proclamation in its relation to the writ of habeas corpus. Secretary Stanton contends that the privilege of the writ is still suspended in South Carolina, and that civilians convicted by courts martial and held under sentence of death, in the custody of General Sickles, should not be turned over to the civil courts. The Cabinet is also at variance with respect to the Freedmen's Bureau bill.—The President is said to have determined to veto the bill, but was opposed by Secretary Harlan, the latter being supported, to some extent, by Secretary Seward, who, we are told, fears the effect of so many vetoes.

THE RADICAL CONGRESSIONAL CAUCUS.—Forney informs us that in the Radical Congressional Caucus in Washington, on Wednesday evening, there was a full and free interchange of opinion among the members on the question of adjournment, the Johnson Philadelphia Convention, and other subjects; after which, a committee, consisting of six members of the House and three Senators, was appointed to take the matter brought before the caucus into consideration, and report what measures should be adopted. There was nothing definite fixed about the adjournment of Congress, but there was a decided expression of opinion against any final adjournment under existing circumsances. Governor Hamilton, of Texas, said that the condition of the unconditional Union men of the South was worse to-day than it was during the reign of Jeff. Davis. Which declaration, and the rest of Hamilton's speech, the Radicals intend to publish as an electioneering document.

The Alexandria Retrocession Bill---The Tennessee Legislature---The Radicals on Adjournment, &c.

[Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun.]

The bill repealing the act retroceding Alexandria to Virginia was again taken up in the Senate to-day. Mr. Davis completely refuted the charge made yesterday, by Mr. Wade, that the act was passed by "secessionists." It appears that Jefferson Davis voted against it, and Mr. Davis, of Massachusetts, and other New England members voted in favor of it. Mr. Johnson delived one of his exhaustive arguments on the legal bearings of the subject, and proved conclusively to unprejudiced minds the perfect constitutionality of the act in question, and the extreme difficulty and conflict of jurisdiction that would arise in case the act was repealed. The people of Alexandria, by a vote of nearly five to one, had accepted the retrocession, and there were now on their tables petitions signed by three thousand persons protesting against the repeal. Mr. Johnson also proves that in case the act was repealed, the Senators from west Virginia would hold their seats by a precarious tenure, as the pretended consent of the State of Virginia to the separation was made by the Alexandria Legislature for some half dozen counties. If the retrocession act was void and Alexandria had always belonged to the District, then no one could contend that the Legislature sitting there had the power or right to give the consent of Virginia to the disintegration of the State. After a protracted debate the bill was finally defeated by 17 to 11.

The radicals are cheered by the telegrams from Nashville, stating that when one more member can be forced into the lower House, there would be a quorum, and that then the House would concur with the Senate in the ratification of the article amending the constitution. One of the arguments urged in favor of the ratification is that it will secure the immediate admission of Senators and Representatives elect from Tennessee, and that it can do no harm, inasmuch as the article will never be ratified by the requisite number of States. The proceeding will necessarily be illegal, and may be set aside, if any question ever be made of its validity, for the Legislature (so called) is an illegal body. It will serve the turn of the radicals, however, at the coming election.

At the caucus to-night the republican members will consider what legislative measures must be passed before an adjournment. The time for an adjournment will be discussed. A plan for a recess till November 1st, which has already been offered in the House, may be considered. It will serve some political purpose—perhaps keeping the President at bay—and at the same time adding another month to the session, which will be too short for the disposition of the mass of business.

One of the wild allegations of those who do not wish to adjourn is that the President will, as soon as Congress shall evacuate the Copitol, call Congress together in special session at short notice, summoning all the Representatives and Senators elect or to be elected from the eleven Southern States. If they refuse admission, the President will, they say, recognize them as a constitutional body, and dismiss General Grant if he refuses to sustain them.

The reported revolt at Puerto Principe is treated lightly by the Spanish authorities at Havana. It is officially explained by the government paper as a joke. The paper says that it has been the custom in that place to play practical jokes on St. John's Day, and several sergeants and soldiers of the garrison, feeling aggrieved and insulted by several jokes of which they were the victims, had an affray with the townspeople, but were ordered into their barracks by the Governor, which prevented more serious trouble.

The foreign correspondent of the Mobile Tribune says a grand public dinner was recently tendered to General Beauregard, in London, and that he has since been further honored by the acknowledgement of his superior skill as a military engineer. The British government have made overtures to the general, but he has declined them.

OMAHA, July 11.—The Nebraska Legislature in joint ballot to-day elected Major-General J. M. Thayer and F. W. Seldon to the United States Senate. Both are republicans. The Legislature has adjourned sine die.

It is not now doubted that General Sickles will accept the mission to the Hague. It is stated that he has already signified to the State Department his acceptance of the office.

AUTOMATIC MOVEMENTS OF A CORPS.—A man named James Haywood died in New York on Friday, of cholera, and an undertaker was called in to lay out the corpse. In a short time Dr. Waterman, of the Board of Health, was summoned, and told that the man was not dead, the hands, arms and eyelids having moved several times. The undertaker was frightened, and fled from the house, saying the man was alive, and that he would not touch him again. Dr. Waterman found that the movements had been caused by the relaxing of the muscles of the body. The man died in spasms, and the muscles were tightly contracted. After death they became relaxed, causing motions which those present mistook for evidences of life. The medical books record numerous cases of this kind. Sometimes bodies will turn over in the bed or in the coffin, and hence stories of burials while alive.

Latest News and Gossip.

WASHINGTON, July 13, P. M.

Raymond, of the New York Times, emphatically denies the truth of the published report of his remarks in the Republican caucus.

A Democratic Convention has been called in Rhode Island to select delegates to the Philadelphia National Convention.

Gen. Grant has ordered a Cavalry force to be sent to Loudoun Co., Va., as it is alleged that there have been outrages on the Freedmen, and the civil law has failed to punish the guilty or protect the blacks.

Two gentleman from Missouri called on the President, on yesterday, and informed him of a deep-laid scheme, on the part of the Radicals, to carry the Missouri elections by force of arms, if necessary. Secret leagues were organized, militia armed, and arms shipped to various portions of the State by Gov. Fletcher, for the purpose of influencing the election.

The President assured the gentlemen that, as it was his duty to protect all citizens in the enjoyment of their rights as such, it would only be necessary, in case of such outrages, for the citizens to apply to him.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, July 13, P. M.

SENATE.—Wilson offered a resolution calling on the President for information as to the shooting of 23 Federal soldiers at Kinston, N. C., by order of Gens. Pickett and Hoke, of the Confederate army, in 1864.

Mr. Johnson objected, and the resolution goes over.

Mr. Williams entered a motion for the reconsideration of the vote which defeated the bill to re-annex Alexandria to the District.

Mr. Willey introduced a bill to admit the representatives from each Southern State, provided it ratifies the constitutional amendment. Ordered to be printed.

HOUSE.—Mr. Morrill introduced a bill, which is a partial revision of the Tariff bill. Laid over.

The contested election case of Fuller vs. Dawson was decided, to-day, without division, in favor of Dawson.

No Family at the South Should be Without Them.

The late Col John Wright, of Goldsboro', N. C. Aug. 14, 1862, says: "I have used the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS in my family here, and also on my plantation in Alabama, and always with success. I have a valuable servant girl who had been a long time under treatment for consumption without receiving any benefit. Almost in her extremity I was induced to try the Hepatic Pills. They were given according to directions, and she is now well, entirely restored by them. A similar case occurred among my servants in Alabama. For liver and lung diseases I have perfect confidence in them."

For sale by the Druggists. Directions accompany each box. Sent to any part of the United States for $5 per dozen. Address,

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the [so called] remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disenfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

IS a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:

Scrotula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c.

Syphilis or Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this Sarsaparilla, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood and are often soon cured by this Extract of Sarsaparilla.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agents below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from Disordered Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

THE EMPIRE SHINGLE MACHINE.

IS acknowledged to be, by all odds, the best Shingle Machine in America. With only ONE HORSE POWER

per hour are easily made. The machine is built entirely of Iron, very compact and easily transported. It works VENEERS, STAVES and BOX STUFF, and out of the same number of bolts of timber, one third more Shingles are made than can be done by the Sawing Machines. All the saw dust is saved by the Empire and goes into the Shingles.
